

Truth in Government Conspiracy Theories

Dark Forces: 911 Conspiracy Theories

Nobody likes to deal with Dark Conspiracy Theories and yet with the 911 Conspiracy Theories, we can be honest with ourselves and uncover the truth in our government, or we can choose to stay asleep and carry on as if our leaders are truthful. It becomes self evident, when one does their own research that something very sinister is being executed in our name and without our informed consent. It is time to unmask the Dark Side conspiracy theories and sort through what is theory and what is fact.

This web site, www.robertreckmeyer.com is dedicated to all true seekers of truth. We have come to a time in our collective experience that it becomes crucial to our survival and we must confront our worst fears and rise to our greatest potential, failure is not an option.

On September 11, 2001 the world was forever changed. We were told the 911 conspiracy involved nineteen (19) Muslim Arab Terrorists who hated America because of its democratic system and the freedoms we enjoy as citizens of this great country. We have been led to believe that they acted alone and the conspiracy was directed by Osama Bin Laden and his Al Qaeda terrorist network. When one chooses to critically analyze the 911 conspiracy theory the government promotes, one is forever changed and it literally reframes the nature of their personal reality.

Conspiracy Theory vs. Conspiracy Truth is defined as a conspiracy theory based on partial evidence leading to conjecture or partial truth vs. a conspiracy theory based on a preponderance of the evidence that a reasonable, well informed person, would conclude is true based on all the evidence. To understand the 911 operation one must do their own research and look at the operation from many different perspectives. The policy side, physics, i.e. thermite, free fall, structural engineering and the mind control Psy/Op aspects that were perpetrated on the American public and the world.

The 911 conspiracy theory that the government proposes and promotes to the world is false; it is not supported by the facts or the evidence, plain and simple. The Conspiracy Truth that is supported by the facts and the evidence is quit clear when one takes responsibility for the information and does their own research. 911 was a false flag operation, a Psy/Op, perpetrated on the American people involving numerous people, including but not limited to Osama Bin Laden and his Al Qaeda network, and orchestrated and directed by our intelligence apparatus, therefore a conspiracy at the highest level of our government and our intelligence services. The evidence shows beyond a reasonable doubt that the government's simple conspiracy theory is not supported by facts or the evidence. The only way this operation could have been carried out was with the knowledge and support of rough elements within our intelligence services and with the complicity of our political establishment.

False flag operations are nothing new in the world and go back literally to the dawn of civilization. The 911 incident was a classic example of a false flag operation, an orchestrated Psychological/Operation, very similar to others in our more recent collective experience. The Kennedy Assassination is a perfect example. When one takes the Governments line, at face value, and accepts the lone gunman theory, not a conspiracy, then from the start, one has already thrown out multiple possible conspiracy theories. If a conspiracy theory is proposed, with little support of the facts, then it is a conspiracy theory and nothing more. If on the other hand the overwhelming evidence shows a conspiracy was involved then it is about uncovering the known facts and uncovering the conspiracy truth.

Deception is never easy to accept. It hurts when we uncover something hidden and many times we are unable to face the truth. It speaks to the shadow side of our experience. All of us have our shadow side on an individual and a collective basis. We wear a mask in public and many times it is the person we project to the world. Both are a true aspect of our character. Our shadow side is one side of our polarity, the ying and the yang is the other side of who we are. Many times we fail to face our shadow side and it stays hidden, not only from the public but more importantly from ourselves. We do this individually and collectively. When we fail to confront our collective shadow we fail all of humanity. This same reality works on a micro and a MACRO level. The 911 conspiracy, both the false story and the truth speaks to our collective shadow. When one is confronted with the 911 conspiracy and does their own research, it can act as a trigger to face the shadow within, both on an individual and collective basis. Many fail to see the deception because they are not ready to look within and confront the shadow side of their personality and experience.

The 911 Psy/Op can be the triggering event to awaken us from a very bad situation, i.e. a criminal group with an agenda to take over the world through the manipulation of our American system. I would suggest, as tough as it may be, to do your own research and come to your own conclusions. Don't allow your fear to hold you back from the truth and keep you from facing what is really taking place in the world. We either wake up now or in a short while it may be too late.....

May I suggest we do our own research and come to our own truth.....
